

Norden EU

Helen Myslek
Agnetha Kronqvist

Swedish National Agency for Education

Competence enhancing initiatives aimed at teachers who teach in vocational education in combination with sfi / sva

Skolverket

Planned support initiatives - competence development for teachers

- Webinars on the theme of language and vocationally integrated working methods aimed at sfi, sva and vocational teachers.
- Development of a course in language and career-integrating working methods in collaboration with the National Center for Swedish as a Second Language at Stockholm University.
- Implementation of competence-enhancing initiatives for teachers in the form of a course in language and career-integrating working methods in collaboration with the National Center for Swedish as a Second Language at Stockholm University.

Other initiatives aimed at teachers

- Support material for the implementation of vocational training in combination with sfi and sva in adult education, including support initiatives.
- Development of proposals for national vocational “packages” for vocational education in combination with sfi and sva.
- Support material for grades and assessment aimed at teachers who teach in vocational education in combination with sfi and sva.

Flexible studies in adult education

Skolverket

Web course

Web course for teachers with a focus on online learning and with the following content;

- Introduction to digital tools
- Coming together in a group
- Interaction and communication
- Making teaching available

Digital competence in adult education

Skolverket