Nordic cooperation

The competences of the future

The idea behind the agenda for the competencies of the future is to better prepare people of all ages for the society that lies ahead. We want everybody in the Nordic Region to have the knowledge and skills to cope with a more complex future.

Perhaps just as importantly, we also want them to meet the world with open and critical minds and be equipped to work with other people.

Nordic vision 2030 calls for action

The Nordic Council of Ministers' new vision and strategic priorities mean that co-operation must be focused. We keep in mind that results should be useful and the cooperation meaningful.

We have to look at how things should turn out for the end user so that it becomes clearer what concrete benefit citizens, companies and authorities achieve through the cooperation supported by the NCM.

What is adult learning all about? Being ready for change and being able to participate in the local communities. Adult education is included in the overall priorities for the Danish presidency of the Nordic Council of Ministers 2020.

Today's conference:

Aims to help mobilise the adult learning community and step up the work on sustainability.

Expects to provide inspiration, new knowledge, better understanding of SDG:s, personal insights, connecting with other participants, co-creation, ...

Explores the current reality we live in, invites to reflect on the role of the individual and the adult learning sector in the transition to a more sustainable future, and to discuss ways of acting and working together in order to contribute to the Nordic Vision 2030.

Challenges to move from Knowing to Doing - the small steps and the big impact.
